

Thank you for agreeing to participate in this student production. The form below is a required part of their production process, and allows students to use this project to promote their work in a variety of venues. These can include, but are not limited to, local, regional and national contests and film festivals. The project may air at the school, on the local cable public access and education channels. It may be placed on the web. Some contests require separate Talent Release forms. So, you may be asked to sign more than one.
